

Cedar Valley Tour of Lights

December 10, 2020 – January 1, 2021

Bundle up the kids or make it a date night, pack takeout from your favorite restaurant or hot cocoa from a local coffee shop, turn on your favorite holiday music and make memories while enjoying the lights of the Cedar Valley.

When you post your pictures of your Cedar Valley Tour of Lights excursion on Facebook, tag the Cedar Falls Visitor Center @CedarFallsIA. Enjoy your evening out!

Collecting donations for local mini food pantries.

In addition to the displays submitted to the Cedar Falls Tourism & Visitors Bureau, check out these other areas where we've seen some pretty awesome voltage.

Cedar Falls:

- Peter Melendy Park (1st & Main)
- Main Street between 1st & 6th including Santa's Workshop at 4th & Main
- 12th Street between N. Union Road and Hudson Road
- 160th Street, Dike (aka Ridgeway Ave/University Ave) between T65 & N. Pioneer

Waterloo

- Olympic Drive
- Prospect Blvd.

For a nominal fee you can benefit some local causes by touring the Riverview Conference Center Festival of Lights from 5–8pm Dec. 11–13. Cost is $20/vehicle and proceeds benefit the House of Hope, or check out the Hickory Hills Holiday Light Show Fridays and Saturdays until Dec. 19 and on Christmas Eve from 5–9pm. Cost is $10/vehicle and proceeds benefit Black Hawk County Conservation efforts.

Check out our Magical Holiday Lights Displays here for additional ideas in the surrounding area within an hour of Cedar Falls.

Follow the Cedar Falls Visitor Center on Facebook and STAY tuned for the return of the Cedar Valley Tour Lights in December of 2021.
