

Panther for a Day!

10am Arrive at the Gallagher-Bluedorn Performing Arts Center for a behind the scenes tour of this $23 million, 100,000 square foot complex which features three state-of-the-art concert halls, a soaring glass-walled lobby and dozens of teaching and rehearsal spaces.

11:15am Take a fascinating tour through the University of Northern Iowa's Botanical Center. They have been operating for 70+ years. The teaching collection contains a diversity of plants that range from ancient tree ferns and cycads to plants from around the world.

12:30pm Student dining isn't what is used to be! Choose from made from scratch entrees, cook-to-order islands and much more at the Piazza or Rialto dining centers—cause of the "freshman 15!"

1:45pm Experience the Rod Library—It isn't what the Traditionalists, Baby Boomers or Generation X will remember~coffee shop, computers, comfy chairs ~where are the books? The Library is home to the UNI Museum. The Current exhibits include "Panoramic Photographs of UNI" through December 31, 2030 and "Old Gilchrist Hall: A Memory Etched in Flame" through September 24, 2021.

3pm View the Permanent Collection and Current Exhibit at the UNI Gallery of Art located in the Kameron Art Building. In addition, there's enough public art on campus to keep you busy for another full day!

4pm Hop across the street to tour the UNI Wellness Center, UNI-Dome and McLeod Center.

5pm No visit to campus is complete without a shopping spree at the UNI Bookstore. Clothing, hats, mugs and toys galore to show your Panther Pride!

6pm Finish the day at "mom's" favorite place to dine and shop, Barn Happy! Relax with a cup of coffee, homemade soup and pie.
